

Girl Scout badges: the building blocks for her future success.

Is there something your girl is passionate about, or have always wanted to try? Chances are, there's a badge for it! Badges are a great way for girls to explore their interests and learn new skills. Every program grade level has their own set of badges and awards that girls can work on. Generally, each badge connects to a specific subject matter (like coding, first aid, or animal habitats) and enables girls to become proficient in that topic.

Use the QR code to join our email list to stay connected and learn about current and future opportunities to start your girl's experience with Girl Scouts.

Please Join us for our upcoming information nights!

March 26th, March 27th & April 2nd

From 6:30-7:30pm

At Michigan Tile and Carpet Co. Community Room

99 E Columbia Ave, Battle Creek, MI 49015

Have questions? Please contact: Lcasey@gshom.org

"A badge...

...is a symbol that girls have done the thing it stands for often enough, thoroughly enough, and well enough to be prepared to give service in it."

Juliette Gordon Low, founder of Girl Scouts.
